

Entry 11 - Mary Smith, "Mask Charade"

Bio

Mary Madeco-Smith, artist and re-painter, resides in rural MN and is internationally known for her Sasha Morgenthaler doll repaints and accompanying outfits. She also enjoys working with Goodreau, Creedy and Ellowyne Wilde dolls.

Poem

"Mask Charade"

My attempt to wear colors and plumes of Carnival
Left me alone in the room at the Masquerade Ball
I feel no hopeful change in me while attempting to hide my identity,
For it reveals that I will forever eternally be ennui.

Outfit

Carnival/Fat Tuesday/Masquerade Ball made of multi-dyed cotton paired with synthetics, tulle removable skirt, bubble dress with matching panties, armlets, leggings and Carnival mask. Carnival colors of green, gold and purple in muted "Ellowyne" tones.
