

Entry # 13 - Sissy Lingle, “Great Gatsby Party”

Bio

Having loved playing with dolls and sewing outfits for them as a child, I found a whole new world in 1999 when I began collecting and sewing for dolls as an adult. My main enjoyment comes from designing and sewing outfits for my large collection. Attending doll conventions, meeting dolly friends, and giving workshops are the highlights in my year!

Poem “Great Gatsby Party”

Tho' I was born 90 years too late,
And knowing I must accept my fate
That a “Great Gatsby Party” I can never attend,
Still, dressing the part, I can always pretend.

Outfit

A GREAT GATSBY PARTY

Inspired by a silver outfit shown in the movie The Great Gatsby, the silver lamé, marabou trimmed cape floats over a silver bead-trimmed flapper dress and is topped by a sequin and hand beaded cloche hat.
