

Entry #6 - Janice Walthers, "Happy Face"

Bio:

Janice Walthers. I am looking forward to retiring this year. I need to learn how to use my surger. When I am not working or collecting dolls, I enjoy traveling.

Poem

"Happy Face"

I've been invited to a party, "Oh Gee,"
They want me to go and be filled with glee.
I will fool them and take a happy face
To hide my distaste of being stuck in a happy place.

Outfit:

I made this dress out of a teal sheer material with spots of silver. The bottom of the dress is a large matching ruffle, which was also used to trim the mask.
